Two colored marshals at the Greeley and Brown ratification meeting at Raleigh, North Carolina, on Tuesday night, were violently assaulted by a mob of infuriated blacks, and one of them has not since been heard of. Fears are entertained that he has been foully dealt with. The United States Commissioner has issued warrants for the arrest of the parties in one of the cases.

Virginia farmers complain of the scarci-ty of water. Streams never known to fail before are entirely dry, and some are com-pelled to drive their stock from their own farms to procure a sufficiency of water.

Very destructive storms have visited the middle and southern counties of Eng-land, prostrating and destroying the grow-ing crops in many places.
